

Emil Sauer Gives a Last Recital In New York Before Retiring

Distinguished German Pianist to Quit the Concert Field on His Return to Europe.

BY SYLVESTER RAWLING.
MILL SAUER, the distinguished German pianist, gave what was an encored and saw the operatic pantomime "La Chaise." The triple bill filled the auditorium to the limit of its capacity. Much of the stiffness of the first night had worn away, and the principal singers improved on their previous excellent work.

Mme. Labita, as Santuzza, was in excellent voice, and sang with fervor and decided feeling. The reserve of the judgment of the audience still seemed to be held in reserve. Although no programme announced Campanini as conductor, the two operas were conducted by Pavell, and "La Chaise" by Charlott.

Overheard after the performance:
She—Dear me; I don't see why they called this the chair. She sat mostly on the table.

He—Oh!

MISCHA ELMAN, VIOLINIST. TO MAKE HIS DEBUT TO-NIGHT.

Mischa Elman, a Russian violinist not yet twenty, who has been declared by many European critics to be already in rank with the master players, will make his first appearance in America to-night at Carnegie Hall with the Russian Symphony Orchestra under Modest Altschuler. He will first take the solo part with the orchestra in Tchaikovsky's violin concerto, and afterward play Wieniawski's "Souvenir de Moscow." Scriabin's new "Destiny" symphony, No. 4, which is to get a first hearing in this orchestra, will enlist the services of over 100 musicians.

MRS. LATHROP'S RECITAL.

Mrs. Ben Lathrop is to give a song recital in Mendelssohn Hall on Friday afternoon. Her programme embraces examples of composers from Monteverde in 1537 down to our own La Forges and Luckstone.

WORLD'S FAIR AT PANAMA.

PANAMA, Dec. 10.—Steps are being taken looking to the organization of an association for the purpose of commemorating the opening of the Panama Canal in 1905. It is proposed that the opening is to be made in time for the world's fair here. Many of the most prominent men on the Isthmus have heartily endorsed the plan, which, if successfully carried out, would mean so much for the country.

All Cathartes Deceive THE ONE YOU FAVOR MOST IS INCLUDED HERE

Next time you need a physician, instead of your regular laxative put some Dilaxin from your druggist, it is an inexpensive as suits in the long run. Now for the proof that cathartes deceive, that they never have given you a positively complete bowel cleansing. A few hours after taking the Dilaxin that made into tablets by The Marmola Co., Detroit, Mich., is the best you will experience a movement, mild, and gentle enough in action to please the most critical, but, and here is the point, so full and finished like, that you will be unable to ignore the difference. Every hour thereafter you will notice the difference, too, and resolve, for instead of the weakness and lassitude that salts produce you will, on the contrary, experience a delightful, enterprising, springing, clear-brained sense of invigoration. Such is the result of a complete clearing out, and since salts never favored you in this way they still convinced of a cheat. Substitute Dilaxin for whatever you may have been in the habit of taking up to this time, and you may depend upon it that you will surely obtain the same measure of comfort, with the right to expect but never receive from a cathartic. Dilaxin is not a purge, as salts are, but a remedy for constipation. Because of the manner in which the salts of course eventually makes users unnecessary, consequently there is no such thing possible as a Dilaxin tablet. The only salt still left in the habit of unassisted regularity, which would be cheap at any price, but the same a complete treatment of Dilaxin is only twenty-five cents at any good drug store.
